SEVEN persons are confined in the Paris jail charged with murder.

THE Senatorial dead-locks in Minnesota and Nebraska are still unbroken.

THE Republican Central Committee of Ohio has decided to hold the State convention at Columbus on the 5th and 6th days of June.

THE last census gives Kentucky 5,328 manufacturing establishments, with $46,000,000 of capital and $36,500 employees who are paid $12,000,000 annually, or about $328 to each operative.

It is alleged that the steamer Sultan paid no attention whatever to the Cimbria after the collision, though the latter vessel sank before the other was out of sight. Of the four hundred persons lost many might have been saved.

THE ex-Empress Eugenie has left Paris, it is said at the request of President Grevy, who notified her that her presence there was undesirable. The Ministerial crisis is believed to have been bridged over. The excitement concerning the expulsion of Prince Napoleon seems to have entirely abated.

BILLS have been introduced in the Ohio Legislature to provide for better protection against fires in factories and halls and villages to contract with an individual owner of water-works as well as with a company. Several petitions for an amendment of the liquor law of the State are also under consideration.

THE St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: Every man and woman in the United States owes the newspaper a debt of thanks for having brought about a reduction of letter postage to 2 cents. This reform is now practically accomplished. Both branches of Congress have authorized it—the Senate on Saturday, 40 to 15—and it only remains to fix a date on which the new rate shall take effect. The House proposed January 1st, next, while a Senate amendment suggests July 1st. The latter day, being the first of a new fiscal year, would seem to be more appropriate. The only ground on which further postponement is urged is the importance of allowing the department ample time in which to work off its stock of 3 cent stamps and stamped envelopes.
